

Fr Rob Longbottom

Father Rob Longbottom is the Rector (senior minister) of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Chaplain of St. Paul's School, and father of three children who attend SPS. Upon graduation from UC Davis and Trinity School for Ministry, he worked with Fr Richard James as curate and Assisting Chaplain at St. Paul's Anglican Church from 2001-2005. He returned to St. Paul's Church in March 2020 with the retirement of Fr James. Fr Rob has been ordained for nineteen years and served churches in California, New York, and Florida. A major reason he and his wife Ameer returned to Visalia was so their children could attend St. Paul's School. He is honored to serve as a trustee for SPS because of his belief in the mission, philosophy, and vision of the school. He believes in the educational Christian environment the school strives to create and the students it endeavors to produce. Finally, he believes the community that St. Paul's creates is one which benefits and blesses our wider Visalia and Tulare County community.
