

Laurie Buhler

Laurie Buhler is a past St. Paul's School parent of four children who attended SPS starting in 1984, and she is a lifelong member of St. Paul's Anglican Church. Laurie first served as a trustee for twelve years during her children's tenure at the school, and now she returns as a trustee with two grandchildren at SPS. Laurie's motivation to serve St. Paul's is to uphold and support the school's profound positive influence upon all children who attend. As a trustee, she lends her experience and insight with St. Paul's as it evolved through the years, and she cares deeply about SPS and its well-being. Laurie is a retired registered nurse who served in combat with the US Army during the Vietnam War, and a retired dental hygienist
